The schoolhouse in district number six, near Conesville, in the vicinity of the David Davis mines, was destroyed by fire Wednesday night, about 12 o'clock. It was a two-room frame building. The school books and all the furniture were completely destroyed. It is not known how the fire originated but one theory advanced is that it was set on fire by tramps.

CAME HOME TOO SOON

What Happened to a Grave and Reverend Citizen of Coshocton.

A SCENE NOT ON THE BILLS

Yet "All's Well That Ends Well" and the Map of Madagascar Gives Way to a New Suit of Clothes—A Domestic Drama.

There are incidents and happenings in the lives of all men, which they would greatly prefer to be kept from public knowledge; but in these days of general information, regarding almost all conditions and circumstances, such secrecy can hardly be hoped for and so it is in this case.

The gentleman in question is a grave, dignified and prominent citizen. He is a man of affairs and his business frequently calls him away from home for indefinite, yet not for lengthy, periods. His wife, the good wife that she is, endeavors to have all the household disarrangements occur when the husband is away so that he may not be annoyed by the topsy-turvey conditions; and so it happened on the occasion to which reference is here made.

The head of the house had gone away on a business mission and was not expected to return for several days. He is a man prone to spend his evenings in a comfortable chair on the broad porch, enjoying a fragrant Havana and the companionship of family and friends. This is his habit until the chill blasts of winter drive him in doors. The good wife well knowing this, and not wishing to deprive her husband of any such cherished privileges, conceived the idea of having the porch floor painted while the husband was away from home, that he might not be deprived of a single evening's enjoyment during the October moon.

As has been said the husband was away on business and the wife put the painters to work expecting the paint to be hard and dry before he returned. But Bowser like he did the unexpected thing—he came when he was not looked for. Two full days ahead of time he landed in front of the home place. There had been no barriers put up at the front steps, to keep out intruders, for none were expected. He went confidently up the front walk and onto the porch. What happened to him then we pause to tell. His feet struck the fresh paint, it was as slick as glass and here endeth the first lesson. When the kodak next caught the grave and dignified head of the house he was on the flat of his back and from this point the kaleidscopic changes were too rapid for even a moving picture. He rolled and he floundered in his efforts to strike a perpendicular attitude, but to no avail. He simply rolled all over the porch and mopped up all of the fresh paint. His good wife recognized his cries for help and came to the rescue. The front door was opened and the good man was harpooned with a lawn rake and pulled into the hall.

What a sight—a new suit of clothes so besmeared with fresh paint that they looked like the map of Madagascar. What happened within the confines of the home is not the business of THE AGE to tell, further than to say that a new suit of clothes, man's size, was ordered by phone the next morning. And here endeth the second lesson.

Most All Are Gamblers.

It seems that there are mighty few people in this world who do not occasionally at least, go up against the old game of endeavoring to get something for nothing. The gambling spirit is strongly developed in humanity from the period when the youngsters play "plumps for keeps" (which, however, is really more a game of skill than of luck) down to the days when father plays poker and races and dabbles in stocks and mother gambles for prizes at the pedro club sessions, takes chances on crazy quilts and gathers in trading stamps.

Gone to Her Reward.

Mrs. George Hahn died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bates, near Bacon, Wednesday Mrs. Hahn has been suffering for some time with consumption and was finally taken away by the dread disease. Her brothers, Chas. and Wesley McVickers, of Brockton, Ill., came to attend the funeral which was held at ten o'clock this, Friday, morning. Interment at South Lawn cemecery.

G. L. Johnson, an infirmary director from Guernsey county, and R. W. Lowery visited here this week with Howard Lennon and family at the Coshocton infirmary. They speak in the highest terms of the condition of the infirmary and the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Lennon.

THE ETHICS OF FOOTBALL

Some Incidents of the Game as Played in The West.

It is to be hoped that all local players of football and lovers of the same will keep an eye upon the ethics and incidents of the game as it is played out west, where a high standard of excellence has been obtained and will be preserved.

A few days since teams from the University of South Dakota and Omaha Medical college had a contest, which seems to have been ideal so far as the amenities of the game are concerned. The South Dakotans being visitors and guests, the Omaha medics accorded to them special courtesies. Long before the game was finished they had broken the South Dakota captain's shoulder blade. After this was done and the captain was carried off the field on a stretcher, they broke Player Thompson's rib, and he was carried off the field. Not content with this, they broke more or less legs and arms belonging to three other players, and they were carried off the field. When they had left a sufficient number of the South Dakota warriors hors de combat the medics turned in and won the game, but not before another gentleman had been knocked senseless. The medics may have thought they were paying the South Dakotans too many compliments. In any event, the umpire, who was from Brown college, was singled out for their delicate attention and because of a decision which did not suit them he was promptly knocked out by a blow on the jaw and carried off the field on a stretcher.

THEY HAD AN EXPERIENCE.

The King Bolt Broke and the Entire Family Went Rolling Out Like Potatoes.

Wednesday morning while driving to Coshocton Mr. Daniel McKee and family, of West Bedford, had an experience which they will not soon forget. The family consisted of father, mother and three children and they were jogging along in a spring wagon drawn by a span of horses. While going down a little incline, near Tunnel hill, the king bolt broke, letting the wagon forward on the horses, and then the trouble began. The family was thrown out and the horses ran away. The mother and one child had their noses broken but the others escaped serious injury. At the time of the accident Mrs. McKee was holding her baby in her arms but by some miraculous interference it escaped injury.

The team was caught, the wagon righted and the family returned home. Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. McKee made another start for Coshocton, leaving the children at home, and succeeded in making the trip without accident.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH

Ladies Aid Society Paid Over One Thousand Dollars Last Year.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Aid society of Grace M. E. church was held in the church Thursday evening, with the president, Mrs. J. F. Meek, presiding.

The reports show that over one thousand dollars have been raised by the society during the year. Mrs. A. H. Thompson, treasurer, whose reports are most carefully kept, gave some interesting statements of the successful work of the society. Mrs. Meek, who retires from the presidency, has been a most efficient leader of the society, but felt that other cares required her release from responsibility at the present at least.

The new officers elected are: President, Miss Pauline Weiser; vice presidents, Mrs. Dr. Carr and Mrs. J. F. Meek; secretary, Mrs. E. O. Selby, treasurer, Mrs. A. H. Thompson.

COURT HOUSE.

PROBATE COURT.

Second account filed of Nettie H. Evans, guardian of the minor heirs of Bernard Preston.

Killbuck Oil News.

There has been some hustling by the Killbuck Oil and Gas company the past week. The Berea rock was reached at the usual depth, at which point a "shot" was made on Monday. Our information is that the amount of oil found was but little greater than other wells in the vicinity and the work of drilling down to the Trenton rock will begin at once. If we are to judge from the wells drilled in the Homer gas field the Trenton rock should be reached at a depth of 2500 feet or less. —Holmes County Farmer.

Threatened With Apoplexy.

Mrs. Harriet Sondles was taken seriously ill at her home on North Eighth, Thursday morning, threatened with apoplexy and underwent several relapses throughout the day and Thursday night. Dr. Carr is the attending physician. It was at first feared she was suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Winter is Coming.

Don't forget to order from your grocer some fresh ground, old fashioned buckwheat flour like your mother used. Just received the grain today and we want you to have the cakes for Sunday morning breakfast.

"JENKINS" COLUMN

Doings Within the Realms of Any Gossip, Lodges and Society.

GALLANT COURTECIES WERE NO

More Pronounced "When Knighthood Was in Flower" Than They Are With Knights of Today—Social Events of Interest.

The knights of old were never more chivalrous than were the Coshocton Knights of Pythias when they opened their magnificent Castle Hall Thursday evening with the first ball of the season, and entertained their ladies in a royal manner.

Promptly at eight o'clock were heard the opening strains of the first waltz by the Snepler-Newton orchestra. The large lodge room, with canvas covered floor for the occasion, with its myriads of beautiful colored lights, the decorations of palms and chrysanthemums, and the happy throng of dancers, made a beautiful sight which caused the heart of the knight to throb with just pride in his possessions and hospitality. Midnight came much too soon and when the last sounds of "Home, Sweet Home" softly died away it was with a lingering regret that all departed.

There are few lodges that possess such handsome homes as do the Knights of Pythias in their quarters in the Gray building. They feel that their wives, daughters and sweethearts should share with them, more frequently, the splendors of their castle, and have planned to make their order a more social one and from this time on expect to give a series of entertainments—having them twice a month—for the season of 1902-1903. These will consist of dancing and other amusements that may be from time to time suggested. The attendance is limited to members of the order, their wives, children and such lady friends as the members may desire to attend. Members may also bring with them such non-resident members of the lodge as they desire to invite. A committee of three has been appointed who has full supervision of these entertainments, subject to the will of the lodge. This committee consists of Richard Darnes, James Shepler and Harry B. Hunt. The committee deserves great credit for the success of the first entertainment. They were ably assisted by their brother Knights, and no detail was neglected to make the occasion a most delightful affair.

Mrs. H. B. Hay very charmingly entertained about 70 of her friends at a thimble party at her home on Walnut Thursday afternoon. A very elaborate menu was served. Mrs. Hay was assisted by Miss Eleanor Brooke, Miss Dorothy Adams, Miss Nellie Fisher and Miss Mae Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Glover delightfully entertained at dinner, Thursday, at their home, "Reservoir Farm," east of the city. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Robinson, Mrs. W. T. Knight, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and children and Mrs. Theodore Hayward, of Beverly.

Mrs. Kate Bostwick entertained at her home on South Lawn avenue Thursday evening for her guest, Miss Munson, of Texas. Those present were Miss Louise Glover, Miss Helen Baker, Chester Smith, Ed Timms and Will Benson, of Philadelphia.

Misses Minnie Overholt and Ida Wheatcraft delightfully entertained a number of their Coshocton and Keene friends at their rooms, in the Wilcoxen building, Thursday evening. A bounteous repast was served in courses, after which a very pleasant evening was spent with cards and other games. Misses Overholt and Wheatcraft are praised as charming hostesses. The guests were Prof. and Mrs. Will Huff, Canal Lewisville; Mr. and Mrs. John Colley, Mrs. Westner, Mrs. Caroline Powelson, Misses Minnie Carrick, Mary Wilkins, Mamie Wright, Sadie Shannon, Stella Hamilton, Mary Wheatcraft; Messrs. Clyde Overholt, Bert and Matthew Wheatcraft, of Keene; Bert English, Frank Fuhr, George Pharion, John Powelson and W. E. Rose.

Mrs. Harry Schumaker entertained at her home on South Fifth Thursday evening in honor of Miss Edna Camp, of Outville. The guests were Misses Estella Valentine, Mary Barleau, Lizzie Dencer, Stella Watson, Louise Turner, Pauline Balch, Lillie Krouse, Messrs. Otto Bries, Sam Wright, Chas. McDowell, Will Bries, Alva Linebaugh, Bert McKee, James Waddel, Judd Balch and Ed Wimmer. Dainty refreshments were served. In the "Fruitology" or guessing contest Miss Valentine won the royal and Otto Bries the consolation prize.

How to Build Up a Town.

John Wanamaker, the merchant prince and great advertiser, tritely says: "A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to build up a town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor go where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town so well as a paper well patrocized, and its power should be appreciated. The man who overlooks his home paper injures himself by injuring his town and townsmen."

House Wanted.

I want a small house with modern improvements, centrally located. Will either buy or rent. Address R. C. Snyder, Coshocton. 24-3t.

DOING INDIANA.

Senator Hanna Makes Many Speeches. Strength Overtaxed.

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—Senator Hanna of Ohio is devoting the day to speechmaking in Indiana, completing his tour tonight. Large crowds greeted him at every point. National issues absorbed the attention of the speaker. At Indianapolis Mr. Hanna said of trusts: "In the evolution which is taking place all over our country we must contend for our rights; to do as others have done when they secured those markets and controlled them by the sheer power and force of aggregated capital. These great corporations, some of them may be bad, but not all, at any rate it is the natural evolution upon the basis of the right of every man to do as he pleases with his own under proper restrictions and with due consideration for the people and the well being of our government." The senator had good words to say of labor organizations.

Senator Hanna nearly broke down at the close of the Indianapolis speech. He was standing some distance from the speaker's table when his strength seemed to fail him, and he had to reach for the stand, dragging his body over to it, where he rested his hand. After a moment's hesitation he announced that his physical condition would not allow him to say anything more and was helped to his chair.

CLASS FIGHT

Prevented By Justice Harlan of the Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court, who is a member of the faculty of the Columbia university law school in this city, interfered and prevented a class fight between the freshmen and sophomores. Justice Harlan is a giant in statue, and, although 69 years old, he is still vigorous and active, golf being one of his daily exercises. The younsters were no match for him when he entered the arena. He reached over the heads of the assaulting party, and seizing the leader of the forces by the collar, dragged him from the pile. The jurist then directed the second year men to disperse, with the desired effect.

Sherwell On the Stand.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 24.—Sherwell went on the stand and told his story of his whereabouts on the night of the murder, Nov. 11. He said that he was out with his surrey on the night in question, as that was last night of his furlough. He denied he was under the influence of liquor. He said he hitched his horse at a street corner and went to an opera house, remained there until after the show and then went home. Sherwell denied that he was with Mrs. Railey or any other woman on this night. He said he knew Mrs. Railey, but that he had not seen her for several months before she was murdered. He said he had no motive for killing the woman.

President Dined.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Postmaster General Payne entertained the president and the members of the cabinet at a dinner at the Arlington hotel. The dinner was purely a social function. After the dinner the president and Secretary Root and Attorney General Knox went to the White House where they were in conference at midnight going over what the president should say in the nature of instructions to the anthracite strike arbitration commission.

To Fight Liquor Question.

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—James Wood, on behalf of the business committee of the quinquennial Friends' meeting, called a meeting of all Christian denominations to meet in the city of Washington on March 1, 1906, to discuss ways and means to fight the liquor question. He said the Methodist church was in hearty accord with the call and would send delegates to cooperate with a committee from the five years' meeting.

Morgan's Partner.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Robert Bacon of New York, one of the partners in the firm of J. P. Morgan & Company, called on the president at the White House and later accompanied him on a horseback ride. He returned to New York. It is believed his visit here was in connection with the instructions to be given the strike commission.

Cresceus' Good Mile.

Memphis, Oct. 24.—Cresceus in his attempt to reduce his record of 2:02¼ failed at the Memphis Trotting association's meet, covering the mile in 2:04 flat. Onward Silver went against his two-mile record of 4:29½, and amid much enthusiasm covered the distance in 4:28¾, reducing his record 1¼ seconds.

A New Bowling Club

Coshocton ladies are beginning to take a lively interest in bowling. Another club was organized recently and will be known as the "Thursday afternoon bowling club." The club is composed of artists' wives. They held their first meeting this week and the highest scores were made by Mrs. G. Gregor, Mrs. Chas. Dickerson, Mrs. Duve and Mrs. G. Arnold. Mrs. Gregor rolled the exceptionally good score of 196 to 146.

FOR PROBATE JUDGE.

In choosing county officers on November 4 the people should exercise very great care. One of the first and foremost duties of the voter is to consider the qualifications of the men nominated for positions of public trust. The office of probate judge, for instance, is one of exceeding importance, It means much to some estates that are entrusted to the care and keeping of that court. Property amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars each year is involved. In addition there are many important cases tried before that tribunal There were 54 divorce cases last year and many other proceedings of importance All of this goes to make plain the necessity for placing in that position of great responsibility a man of judgment and experience. It would be a public calamity to elect to that office an unsafe or unlearned man, or one lacking in judgment and experience that he might make costly mistakes It means too much for the public to be considered lightly. It is a matter of deep concern. Every voter should feel a sense of duty in this matter. It is not a matter of personal or political preference. It is rather a matter of duty to the public, to ourselves and to those whose estates may be subject to the wisdom or unwisdom of that court. Think it over and in the same connection remember that R. A. Powelson is acknowledged to be possessed of all the qualifications necessary to the proper and wise discharge of the duties of the position. Think it over and over again.

The foliage of the forests about Coshocton, always beautiful, is never more gorgeous than in the fall season when the sober tints make all the hillsides one grand picture

A San Francisco landlord wants to make use of a penal offense and proceeds to set forth the several causes of action in language decidedly interesting if not always complimentary to the offender, closing with this declaration: 'Any young man who snores is a perfidious wretch if he asks a sweet young woman to marry him and keeps her in ignorance of the fact that he is a victim to the awful habit."

"We are the only nation of importance paying off our debt," says Senator Gallinger. "We could sell $1,000,000,000 of bonds at 2 per cent in twenty-four hours." How is that for the Republican way of doing things? Certainly conditions were different under Democratic administrations when bonds had to be sold, at a high rate of interest, in order to get sufficient money to pay the running expenses of the government.

Tom Johnson has been charged with paying his men at Johnstown in script and then allowing the script to be discounted before it was paid and up-to-date Mr. Johnson has never denied the charge. It is up to Thomas

Shot-Gun Prescriptions.

We suppose we are not revealing any trade secret when we say that many medicines are made up on the principle of the so-called "shot-gun prescriptions," which were formerly somewhat in vogue.

The idea of the shot-gun prescription was to put in a large number of different drugs, each useful for different purposes, in the hope that some of them might hit the case.

Vinol, the medicine we sell over our name and guarantee, is not a scattering "shot-gun prescription," but goes straight to the mark.

It is the best thing we know for a run-down condition, for a listless feeling, nerve troubles, for lung troubles—in fact, it is a safe, pleasant, reliable tonic and reconstructor.

It has cured so many people right here in town we offer money back if it fails to benefit.

"If you want to know what smartly dressed men will wear this season, ask to see Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes."

The Chief Objection

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Henderson Grimett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—George R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by C. E Anderson, Forbes block.

Coal Import's Effect

New York, Oct 24.—The movement to import coal assumed much greater proportions than was generally supposed Nearly 100 steamers have been chartered to load full cargoes of coal this way, only 20 of which have arrived. One effect of the rush of coal iden tonnage this way is demoralized in trans Atlantic shipping on the eastward voyages. The statement is declared by steamship agents to be in no sense an exaggeration that grain can be moved in cargo lots at this time at lower rates than ever before.

Both Men Indicted.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 24.—A special grand jury returned six indictments against Earl Whitney and Claude O'Brien, charging them jointly with the murder of A. B Chinn here two weeks ago. Three of the indictments charge them with separate burglaries here. Two charge each conversely with shooting Asa Chinn. They will be tried at once.

ABANDONED

May Be the Proposed Trip of the Boers to America.

London, Oct. 24.—The failure of Generals Dewet, Botha and Delarey to attend Lady Cook's dinner is supposed to be connected with quarrels, which have arisen between them. It is reported that General Dewet wants the tour of the generals, including the trip to the United States, to be abandoned, and that all three are disappointed at the financial results so far obtained. General Botha, however, is said to be anxious to make a further effort to collect funds. General Dewet's presence is considered necessary for the success of the tour, and if he persists in returning to South Africa, it is not unlikely that the whole tour will be abandoned

Negro Lynched.

Tallapoosa, Ga., Oct. 24. — Ben Brown, a negro, charged with having attempted to criminally assault Mrs. Henry Dees, a white woman, at her home near here, was taken from the county jail by a mob of 300 men and lynched. Troops had been ordered from Atlanta, but did not arrive until an hour and a half after the negro had been hanged. Brown was captured a few hours after his attempted crime by County Tax Collector Bentley and brought to this town and placed in jail. As soon as the news of his capture was learned a mob was hastily formed and stormed the jail. They carried the negro to a spot near Mrs. Dees' house, hanged him to the bridge and filled his body with bullets.

MINES IN BAD SHAPE.

Weeks Before Anthracite Output Will Reach Normal.

MUCH DISSATISFACTION EXPRESSED.

Engineers Having a Hard Time Securing Their Former Positions, and Their International Association May Take Action—Workmen Crushed in a Colliery—Situation to Date.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 25.—As was to be generally expected, there was more or less dissatisfaction among the old employes over the reopening of the mines. Where it was decided not to resume work for a few days the men took it that the coal companies did not want their services, and many complaints reached President Mitchell's headquarters. But when the true situation became known there was a better feeling all around. President Mitchell expects that when all the mines get in operation there will be less complaints.

It looks as though the union engineers were going to have some difficulty getting back their old places. At nearly every mine where the striking engineers made application for work they were told that there were no vacancies. A large number of carpenters are also out in the cold. A delegation of carpenters waited on President Mitchell and told him of their grievances. He advised them to wait a few days and see if employment were not offered them. President Mitchell believes that when general resumption takes place there will be few of the mine employes idle. The firemen are being taken back in larger numbers than any of the steam men. That is because they were experienced and the men who took their places are not so capable. The only friction reported between union and nonunion men was at several collieries in the Wyoming region, where the miners objected to be lowered in the mines by nonunion men.

The resumption throughout the anthracite region is not as general as was expected. Unlooked for difficulties were encountered in the shape of water and accumulated gas, and dangerous roofs which threatened to fall and entomb the workers were also discovered in many of the collieries. The mine superintendents would take no chances and the mining of coal was put off until all parts of the underground workings can be made safe. This will take a few days yet, and in some cases it will take weeks before some of the mines can be put in full operation. From reports received from the entire anthracite region the number of mines in operation is given as a little less than two-thirds of the total number, but the output of coal was less than half the normal.

Threat of Engineers' Union.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 24.—President Mitchell was shown the dispatch stating that President Morton of the International Association of Stationary Engineers and Firemen would order the members of that organization to refuse to handle anthracite coal until every member affected by the strike is reinstated on the basis on which miners returned to work. He read the dispatch over very carefully, but refused to make any comment.

Nonunion Men Depart.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 24.—The nonunion men was a scarce article around the collieries. True to their declarations, the companies did not not dismiss them, but with stockade living quarters gone and the almost impossible task of securing boarding houses confronting them, the imported nonunionists packed up and left for other and more congenial climes.

Mine Accident.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 24.—Thomas Doren, aged 30, and Henry Rupp, 30, two returned strikers, who were working with a gang of rockmen on the night shift at the William A. colliery in Lackawanna, were buried beneath a fall of roof and badly crushed. Doran died from his injuries and Rupp is in a critical condition from internal hurts and a broken leg.

Our Shoes Fit.

Lots of women in this town are hobbling about in tight, ill-fitting shoes simply because they struck the wrong store. We make a specialty of women's shoes that are built to fit—shoes that support and hold up the instep and touch every spot without binding. They will cost you $2, $2.50 and $3 here, but the satisfaction of wearing shoes like these is worth double the amount in added comfort.

Powers See No Further Need For the Military There.

FERTILE VALLEY TO BE OPENED UP.

All Nations Will Be on an Equal Footing, as the Evacuation Means an Extension of the Open-Door Policy in the Yang Tse Region—Other Foreign Intelligence.

Paris, Oct. 24.—France, Great Britain and Germany have concluded an agreement providing for the military evacuation of Shanghai by their forces. The negotiations have also brought an important extension of the open door policy. The agreement affects not only Shanghai, but the entire Yang-Tze Kiang valley, which the powers are seeking to develop for commercial purposes. Evacuation will undoubtedly be accomplished by January. The United States shares in the benefits of the agreement as to the equality of treatment.

France initiated the negotiations as it was felt that there was no further need for maintaining a military establishment at Shanghai. The first stages of the negotiations resulted in an agreement on two points. The first was favorable to the evacuation, the second was that in case any power intended to resume the military occupancy of Shanghai the other powers were equally entitled to resume its occupancy. Germany then proposed that China be asked for assurance of equality of treatment of the powers. China gave these assurances, and the officials here say this branch of the agreement amounts to an extension of the open door policy in the Yang Tze valley.

Although the nature of the commercial equality is not specified, the agreement is that the military and other rights of the powers shall be on an equal footing. The United States is not a direct party to the negotiations, but has been fully advised of the intentions of the three powers. The officials here say the United States shares in the benefits of the agreement as to the equality of treatment. The date of the evacuation of Shanghai is expected to be settled in a few days.
